ADVANCED TRAINING IN FAMILY THERAPY INTERVENTIONS

This advanced training course is designed to examine contemporary theory concerning the role and function of the family and its interaction with the wider society. The course introduces participants to theory and practice of systems approaches to family and couple therapy.

Course Details
- The Family Therapy course is part-fulfilment of the Master of Social Science in Professional Counselling programme
- 20 face-to-face counseling hours in a family setting
- 2 hours of clinical supervision
- $2,461.00 course fee and $214.00 registration fee
- This is a VCF Pre-Approved and SDF Approved course

Minimum Entry Requirements
- Post-Graduate Diploma or Master in Counselling
- Degree in Psychology
- Degree in any health discipline

Closing Date for Application: 2 January 2009
Commencing: 31 January 2009

The next MSocSc (Professional Counselling) will commence on 9 February 2009 and it is recognised by:

Australian Counselling Association
Singapore Association for Counselling

For personalised course advice, please contact Audrey at 9783 9219 (audrey@ecta.com.sg)